Hot Pursuit Music

Dear Lisa,

I am writing to thank you and Hot Pursuit for doing an incredible job at our wedding on July 3, 2008 in Norwood, NJ.

As you are well aware of, choosing a band can be an extremely difficult and tedious process for those involved in planning a wedding. From the first step of this process, you helped to create a comfortable relationship between you and all of the parties involved in this process (my wife and I, my father, and my mother in-law). I can say that for me, this was a necessary quality that I was looking for in a band leader to run our affair. Your patience, sensitivity to peoples feelings, and your willingness to accommodate any and all requests that we had truly make you an outstanding person in this business.

Hot Pursuit is a band that is comprised of talented and accomplished individual players, but it is how they all play together for the music and the party that makes them so professional. Both my father and I are working musicians, and we were both so amazed and pleased at how great and full the nine piece band sounded. When you combine the sound of the band with your leadership and programming of the party, and the exchange of energy from a roomful of guests, it is the making of an incredible experience that is not forgotten.

You succeeded in helping my bride and I be able to share our love with all of our guests through song and dance. The flow of the music was perfect with everything going on in the party. From the music at the cocktail hour, to our first dance, to the hora, the special requests, and right up to the last dance, you kept the party flowing and the guests captivated.

Hot Pursuit is a rare gem and I recommend them to anyone who wants a truly remarkable band and band leader for their special occasion.

Thank you again Lisa for the work that you do.

With sincere gratitude,

Adam & Tara
